

KILLING BY HIS AUTO SENDS RECKLESS BOY TO PRISON 5 YEARS

Highest New Jersey Court
Confirms Sentence of Judge Dugan's Son.

Daniel A. Dugan Jr., of Orange, N. J., whose automobile ran down and killed Leo McDermott, a small boy of that town, on Christmas Day, 1911, must serve a term of from five to seven years' imprisonment at Trenton. The Court of Errors and Appeals yesterday confirmed the sentence of Judge Martin of Newark.

Dugan, now twenty years old, who has figured in several sensational episodes, is in Denver, Col. He is the son of Judge Daniel A. Dugan of the District Court of Orange. He will probably be returned at once to surrender himself, unless his father takes the matter to the United States Court.

The killing of young McDermott was particularly atrocious. Dugan, with two other youths, had been drinking. The Judge's son, at the wheel, raced the car through Orange, at nearly sixty miles an hour. It struck Sylvia Tichenor, a young woman, knocked her down, and on, and then killed the McDermott boy. While Dugan was attempting to escape the machine struck a telegraph pole and was wrecked. The three occupants then endeavored to escape, but were caught.

In April, 1913, Dugan was found guilty of manslaughter. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court, which, in June, 1913, confirmed the sentence. Then it was taken to the Court of Errors and Appeals, which handed down its decision yesterday.

Deportation of Labor Leaders May Bring About South African Separation.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Premier Botha's coup in deporting labor leaders from Capetown has now come to be regarded everywhere here, irrespective of party, as possibly fraught with the gravest consequences. Even if the men obtain indemnity from the South African Parliament the trouble will only be beginning and a stormy time in South African politics be immediately ahead, in which the Union will be imperiled. Though Botha's autocratic methods find favor with the Tory element here, it is recognized that they are utterly repugnant to the principles of the British Constitution and that their endorsement in any form would be bitterly resented in Australia and Canada, where popular government is dearly prized.

EAT

What You Will—When You Will
—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets
Will Digest the Meal Easily and Surely.

Food is itself a medicine. The reason stomach troubles arise is due to faulty digestion brought about by overworking the body or brain, sickness, overeating, late hours, etc.

"But Why, That's My Middle Name Now, But I Always Take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals."

The only way to correct faulty stomach troubles and digestive mistakes is to do what nature wants. All that nature needs is a little assistance to do this work. This is why doctors tell you to diet. By not eating, nature is compelled to aid herself. You do not then overwork her when she is already exhausted.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets go into your stomach just like food. They help digest this food. Then they enrich the blood, and thus when the next meal is eaten the system is better prepared to do its work without assistance or at least less assistance.

A Message From William G. White

The newspapers are at present crowded with sales of all kinds. The difference between other sales and the closing out of William G. White stores is just this:

On one hand you find sales of odds and ends and unsalable, unseasonable merchandise, and here you are offered the best of the best manufacturers of men's wear at unheard of prices.

William G. White is Going Out of Business

Nothing is reserved. The latest, most staple and most seasonable furnishings go with the rest. There is but one object of this sale, and that is to close out all stocks in the seven White stores as quickly as possible, so that the stores can be leased and the fixtures sold.

The White "going out of business" sale is a real opportunity for the man who knows real value and wants real, new, fresh, up-to-date furnishings. Go to the nearest White store today.

These items are only a few of the bargains you will find, because everything in the seven White stores, including the fixtures, is for sale.

Great Singers Must be "Tobacco Wise"

Tuxedo is the Tobacco Chosen by Opera Stars

MEN who depend upon their voices come to know tobacco as the ordinary smoker never knows it. A sensitive throat or mouth feels the slightest sting, bite or scorch of tobacco.

Tuxedo is the one tobacco which singers, actors, public speakers—all men who guard their throats zealously—can smoke with pleasure and safety.

Tuxedo tobacco cannot sting, bite or irritate the delicate membranes of the mouth or throat.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo tobacco has made thousands of men converts to the pipe, because it has made pipe-smoking possible for them. Under the famous "Tuxedo Process" the mild, tender leaves of the highest grade Burley tobacco are so skillfully treated that Tuxedo burns slowly and affords a cool, mild, thoroughly enjoyable pipe smoke.

Leading men in all walks of life—well-known doctors, lawyers, ministers, lecturers, etc.—smoke Tuxedo and testify to its soothing influence on the throat.

"I have found that the use of Tuxedo does not interfere with my singing. On the contrary, I've never indulged in a more satisfying, more really beneficial smoke."

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE BRINGS ME THE FINEST BUY OF BRITISH WOOLLENS THAT I HAVE EVER SEEN

THE STORY—

In the past fourteen years, doing business on Washington Street, Boston, it has been my custom to clean up the stocks of the finest wholesale woollen houses. With my tremendous outlet, no stock has been too large for me. I sometimes have occasion to take almost the entire stock of a wholesale woollen merchant, it being understood that I am to pay cash for the same. All the wholesale woollen dealers know this, and most of my buys to-day are with the understanding that the names of the concerns which unload their merchandise are to be kept a secret.

A wholesale house, in order to send drummers on the road, must sample out their stock, and when a piece comes down to from ten to thirty yards the sample must be recalled in order to avoid duplicate selling. That means their best styles are withdrawn from stock, and when the season is fairly well advanced the accumulation of these ends is a source of worry to the wholesaler.

There's where I come in. I stand ready to take these at prices ranging from 25 to 75 per cent. off the original price. This is not a rare occurrence. I do this week in and week out, all the year through, subject to this restriction: That the name of the concern must not be advertised, and at certain times I am not allowed the privilege of using the name of the mill whose goods are thus turned over to me.

ONE OF SCOTLAND'S LARGEST HOUSES

Having an agency in Boston, turned over an immense portion of their stock, the ends running from thirty to sixty yards, to a small wholesaler. The party buying these goods could not handle this enormous stock and turned them over to me at practically what they cost. Goods worth from $2.50 to $4.00 a yard. I bought these goods for about 25% of their value. The great majority are Spring woollens, staple styles, herringbones, small checks, quiet gray effects, rough tweeds, homespun, fancy novelties, everything that might comprise an English or Scotch woollen house stock. I cannot mention the Scotch concern who sold these goods. It is the only restriction placed on me, but I have them in my window, with the original tickets on them. I want all my old customers to flock in and get in on this buy. They are goods that would be sold by the high priced merchant tailor for prices ranging around $40.00.

There is only one price to be put on these goods during this sale—that is, suit or topcoat to order, $10.00. Anything in this range, irrespective of color or quality, suit or topcoat to order,
